Notes About Tonight's Service

Our Maundy Thursday service combines readings of scripture with the extinguishing of candles to form a visual symbol for Jesus' suffering and death. Mr. Jason Hudson will be extinguishing the candles during tonight's service.

Because of the dramatic nature of the service, you are urged to depart in silence. Please save your conversation until you get to the parking lot.

The artwork on the cover is titled, "Christ Bearing the Cross." It was painted by Marco Palmezzano and resides in the Vatican Museums collection.

He was despised and rejected by men;
A man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief;
and as one from whom men hide their faces
he was despised, and we esteemed him not.
Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows;
yet we esteemed him stricken,
smitten by God, and afflicted.
But he was wounded for our transgressions,
he was bruised for our iniquities;
upon him was the chastisement that made us whole,
and with his stripes we are healed.
All we like sheep have gone astray;
we have turned everyone to his own way;
and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Isaiah 53:3-6
